Iconography

Our iconography represents our three audiences – covering aspects of the academic and the professional world. The curved lines look modern but still convey a sense of professionalism and trustworthiness.